

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

The ten fundamental principles of the trust and stability current in Afghanistan:

1. Commitment to an Islamic, unified, and economy-based Afghanistan,

2. Preservation of political independence, national sovereignty, and territorial integrity,

3. Rule of Law (unconditional observance of the Constitution and complete independence of the judiciary),

4. Inclusive political participation,

5. Fundamental rights and freedoms of citizens without any discrimination,

6. Social and judicial justice,

7. Balanced and sustainable development,

8. Goal-oriented and efficient educational system,

9. Ensuring individual and social security and institutionalizing a culture of tolerance and acceptance of others,

10. Policy of de-escalation and peaceful coexistence in regional and international relations.
